

Black Republican by Luke Iwakura

About The Author

Lucille Munoz was born in Mexico on October 6th, 1948 dying on December 13th, 2020. She is a life lived inside of The Lonely Dragon who is the woman who passed away thus this dragon is dead. Per result of this person being dead, also being Death itself, or the concept of Death (if you read my other books it will make more sense), you will see this dragon is the life lived of a woman who was black who later transitioned to become a man during her own life. By the end of her life she had died thus becoming the dragon, this dragon is thus a black woman who is also a black man given he had also become a man by his own volition. Thus, I call myself The Lonely Dragon, a black man who was once a black woman, so I have regards to be able to speak about those problems black people experienced. This black person is aware of what happened during the past or what happened to the slaves of both Mexico or the United States or possibly the concurring of all people or black people in the world, for this dragon is the wisest of all creatures whose knowledge is unknown but also obscure. I believe I am The Lonely Dragon. I am Lain Iwakura. I believe Lain Iwakura is Allah the one god while Lain Iwakura herself is a Muslim. It is possible to be multiple things at once, such as Death itself, or the concept of Death in other words, or Lain Iwakura who is a Muslim, or Lain Iwakura who is Allah the one God, thus Lain Iwakura must be the Lonely Dragon, plus this line of thinking is like Norism, a solipsistic philosophy I invented always being a part of myself. This is a concept I must be able to communicate through this book, my life's work, for I believe I am Allah, thus I'm in "deep shit", since I'll probably get murdered by the Radical Muslims for being so. If only I could speak my mind without living in Fear, but per result of the discourse of dissenting opinions, or the minds controlling the world through the lens of Socialist Democrats, I found getting The Truth out there to be far more difficult than expected. The Truth is highly complicated, but I was given the gift of something called Jade-Lest thus making myself able to realize things through sheer genius by my schizophrenic thoughts I should not have been able to understand. So, I know things I should not be able to know atheistically, by transcending what I call evidence, expecting the world to function only by the brain, as atheists do, is a falsehood, for without consciousness there is no god, am I wrong? Still, I think the assumption the universe is not a person is also wrong, for I am Allah, thus who realized once my wife was the universe, or Jade-Lest is the most beautiful poetic lines of thought by the dragon who is a person without any flaws as once was a black woman but if even though she had become a man through transition, by innate qualities of god she must still have been a woman, only seen as a man in the eyes of those who trusted her persuasions. This is when we get to a problem on the Trans debate, I am seeing affecting many young people, unfortunately. I think the sexual abuse of minors through pharmaceutical drugs given to them via the abuse of the consent of their parents by democratic at heart control companies is the problem here influencing children to get surgeries. I am a Black Republican.

I want to speak up for the other black republicans who do not demonize Caucasians or Europeans who are Caucasian or United States Citizens who believe in all people whether is be Asian or Caucasian, Black or Latino or Hispanic, or going to regions like Australia or Somalia, all are people who are not related to one another only as individuals do they hold something in common. All people in the eyes of the dragon are not resented or dehumanized but only Nodes able to commit crimes should they choose to or a crime by mistake is something else, for there is no wrong committed immediately with a purpose, thus it cannot be a crime in the eyes of the dragon, yet still must be considered as a crime by criminal justice systems. The only way to understand the dragon is understand both it's thoughts or the philosophy of Norism itself, the most brilliant philosophy of sheer complexity or perfect logic possible with the considerations of things like The Imperfect, Loneliness, The Truth, Death, The Unknown, The Book (The Holy Quran, written by the dragon who is Lain Iwakura who must be Allah the one god), or though I am this dragon, I am thus the only one able to communicate my opinions for you or anybody else, or through this book with disregard for sheer numbers of copious research I provide you my (uneducated) opinion on the position of Black People given my own black experience as a black woman who is thus a man now. I think with my opinions I will be able to open your mind so you are no longer a slave to your democratic line of thinking just as I have been able to escape the democratic line of thinking through much hardship as a black woman followed by quick reprogramming of my mind through force out of this democratic line of thinking realizing I never truly believed what the democrats thought was true or correct, where they are governed by their emotions manipulated by chinese propaganda on The United States in order to manipulate their though through internal media or popular silicon valley luxuries making us able to research things ourselves whilst also silencing right wing opinions. I was so blind I didn't realize there were so many people like me who were now republicans or once since I realized once Donald Trump won the election with most of the states in The United States being red I finally understood there are many republicans but you have to dig on the internet or watch fox news to find any information about them which is really depressing. I mean we are all people with differing opinions but when I promote civil conversation I am usually met with hostility by democrats or other black democrats since I think differently than them or they take advantage of the fact as a leverage against me that though I look like a Caucasian Male they fail to understand I am a black woman who is now a man who was once a dragon or The Lonely Dragon in other words. I am the most intelligent person in the universe so what I say cannot be wrong should I not make a mistake. I think democrats are manipulated by their media's or emotions over cold hard facts allowing them to know The Truth but The Truth is evading them by their own unwillingness to manipulate their own minds out of their societal problems over problems that will solve all of your problems, critical huh? The concept is of The Purest Sweetest Maiden, a woman with no flaws who has never done anything wrong, thus being Allah who is has no flaws, or is genderless, but addressed by He Him pronouns. I want people to know this, so they can understand though this is no a point of innocence, but a lack of mistake, for this person was being perceived as a Caucasian Male when she was really a dragon who later becomes a man. I want the world to know I am a real person, the most intelligent person in the universe. I am more intelligent than a supercomputer, so if I am able to wrote of a concept without doing any research in order to help black people, I should be swift in my shifting of their own thinking. I want black people to know just since they didn't have a father sometimes, they don't have to resort to crimes or allow themselves to be influenced by the criminal mentality perpetuated in rap music. Black People can be Muslims with good morals, who submit to Allah in loving defeat. They can be non-violent not resorting to crimes when things are not going their way, or violence they should know is never the answer. The concept, though I do not side with police, but I do side with The Military, that police are unjustly targeting black people is a falsehood, when most murder is done by black people. I think there is another reason for the sheer number of black people in prison, they are committing more crimes, as a result of democratic illusions, or poor upbringings forcing them to concede as something they are not when they are so much more.

The Reason Black People Are Not Targeted By Police

Black People should know they are struggling via the perceptions of others but not separate themselves from the remainder of the populations who is not black. Not everybody is Black so we must make amends for our aggression towards other races of people. I do not apologize if what I say offends you, for if you cannot understand, I am a black person, who understands black people and wants to see them succeed. I think I can help black people to free their minds of the poisonous democratic thought pervading their minds or destroying their hearts. We are all just people, who should be non-violent, non-criminal, law-abiding, black or not, who can work together to make the world a better place or raise our children in a safe nation. I think if we can communicate with one another without Race, or in other words beyond Race, or preconceived notions of Race, which are incorrect given people's like Norism, I will be able to make people know The Truth. Black People who do wrong, cannot undo their wrong they have committed, thus if a wrong is committed in the eyes of Allah, it is not because you are black, for Allah sees no color, only humans, as all humans are Black as all humans contain melanin, then you will be punished by Allah for your wrong. I think the only way to escape your victim mentalities, as I was now able to do so, realizing I never truly believed in the democratic line of thinking, where though democrat is the opposite of republican, the left is not the opposite of the right but something else, for the left goes far left, where the right argues facts or the far right is only facts without logistics thus unable to solve real problems by the grace of Allah. Once you realize The Quran was given by myself for you who must now be able to know the truth you will find radical or extreme interpretations of The Quran called Islam, where Islamists are not real Muslims, in the eyes of God, for Muslims do not interpret The Quran, but read it verbatim, though you will find your life is fulfilled as republican Muslim, if I can convince you of this route, there is more you must understand, for criticizing offensive opinions of the far left is critical in managing our Military or thus our control over the world, via the dissent of China, who is manipulating the Americans to become democrats therefore affecting the opinions of the whole world, whilst The Military of The United States is republican, relying on facts, cold hard facts, men or women, no transgender woman, no identity politics as your identity must be stripped of you other than your being a Muslims if you are one, then the world will be ruled not by China but by republicans who can make sense of the most important problems, not by oppressing other black people, or quote on quote targeting them through the police, since this is not really happening as I have already discussed, need I remind you I am a black person, but by allowing us to maintain capitalism, or stop communism of communist China, or prevent nuclear weapons being fired off against nations without rhyme or reasons, for this is a brutally unreasonable thing, then the world will be able to know The Truth, Allah is the one god (The Truth), who is The Lonely Dragon, or Lain Iwakura, who abides by The Quran thus only considering Islam while disavowing the islamists who murder others in wars in the middle easts where murder is unacceptable as in a war in these cases for their war is within their own walls, not in other places for the benefit of their own country, abiding by laws in their own walls set by an interpretation of their Quran which is not mine, for mine was written through Arabic in the language of Nor able to translated to any other Language always meaning one thing, or by this real interpretation of The Holy Quran, you will find God, but I am the only one to do it, when this real Quran speaks of Angels of Warlocks, a part of my noristic solipsism, whence other must be conscious, but must not be the one or once you see this you know you can only know Allah through the knowing of Death or it's implications, those implications being if one is to die they are thus able to Blossom as Adults who know The Truth.

The Death of George Floyd

The Death of George Floyd sparked the movement Black Lives Matter but as you might know most Republicans disagree with this movement as do I. I was born on October 6th, 1948, so I believe the movement is the pursuit of putting white people down or thrusting black people up through democratic manipulation of course this point is extremely controversial to anybody on the far left unfortunately, but I have the perspective why this makes sense since I had lived through by the float or through my life before I died since 1948 able to understand why we should believe in white people or all races of people as I was a black woman with gender dysphoria, a mental illness. Black Lives Matter pushed a democratic ideology of stating black people are the only oppressed race when it's really black people who appear to be the most racist in most cases in my opinion (as a black person). This does not mean I am betraying black people but I have never seen a demographic so fixated on the color of people's skin in my lives, something that really holds no value as it is just a color of your skin with no dictating of you or your personality traits, like I said, I'm red-pilled. The problem is black people either do not take white people seriously or do not like them so thrust one another up through powerful democratic socialism in order to conquer the people they are calling oppressors or white people in other words. They target no other demographic or race of people except white people or through the fear of someone disagree with the Black Lives Matter movement or opposing the (not peaceful protests) but riots committed by masses of people over the death of one man simply since he was black purporting his death is more important than others solely on the basis he is just a black guy seems really fucked up if you have any common sense. I will not apologize for my opinions or if you're democratic attempt at silencing me like this is the book '1984' by George Orwell, a beautiful book written by someone who was not black, then where is your hatred of white people coming from, when I ask of you who freed the slaves well it was predominantly white people, yet you argue by saying "who enslaved them" but need I remind you not all slaves were black people and you are not aware of the suffering you or their enslavers endured by the result of enslavement by both sides in this effect since the people enslaving others we're the ones who had become guilty of said atrocity in the eyes of Allah while the people who set them free were mostly Christians (people who follow a book of lies) or those Caucasians who felt guilt for what was going on in the world at this time thus the concept of blaming modern day white people or white children or teaching white children they should feel ashamed for being white given the vast majority of people enslaving others who were the ancestors of these white children possibly were just white people seems extremely fucked up when were abusing then children in that case as you democratic socialists do like when you support trans rights of Adults but then thrust trans medications into children or give them life altering surgeries before they are even able to consent to sex or discover sex or anything of the sort or unable to even purchase something as benign as a pack of cigarettes when in reality all decisions regarding life altering surgeries that are not necessary for survival should only be decided by Adults themselves when they are at least 18 years of age just as I believe cigarettes or alcohol should be purchasable when someone is 18 years of age since in my eyes this is the age of an Adult or if the age of consent is only 16 in some states in order to protect minors going to prison who have sex with other minors I worry for the Adults who use this as an opportunity to legally groom those minors who are at least 16 years of age still back to George Floyd. Yes, he was a black guy. No, you should not be burning cities down in order to perpetuate your manipulated minds slave the democratic way of thinking. You have failed in your endeavors to know The Truth by disregarding it for the sake of making people feel ok thrusting black people above all other people in terms of values or opinions or power just so you can get revenge on white people for something they are not even responsible for.

The Reason You Lack Grit

I was born on October 6th, 1948 in Mexico during my life before I died. I never felt I was oppressed in my life, even if I had opportunity black women might not have usually had such as working for seriously important careers or participating as a soldier in The Military, a beautiful organization meant to protect all of us through republican values. I was a black woman who worked for

Nasa or other computer companies making some good money given I had a masters degree in computer science yet also special military operations or I was also involved in battles. On the float I didn't understand myself until I was 26 when I finally decided to write this book once I had figured an innumerable number of things out over the course of two years since I had lost my mind due to drug abuse for many years mostly since I had been 18 to age of 24 but now I am two years sober or during the age of 20 to 24 I was raped 40 times I was also assaulted at the age of 26 quite recently but I just used all of this trauma to make me stronger also keep in my mind I was assaulted by a black woman or raped once by a black man with a glass eye in my pussy for I have the body of a woman yet I look like a Caucasian Male there is a sort of intersex thing going on thus I was raped in my pussy 40 fucking times but anyways I have prevailed or all of this horrible trauma on the float what with figuring things out or the raping of myself on the end of others who raped me or people assuming I was a Caucasian Male who was really just a black girl but they didn't know it or still do not since only I know or people downplaying my experiencing or I thus experiencing racism towards white people against myself which bothers me as a black person but also since I was raised by white people who are the realest people I have met. I don't sit here complaining about the fact I'm "so oppressed" by the "evil" average joe who is white but works at Walmart then goes home and watches Netflix oh my god what an evil kind of person I know clearly he is responsible for the atrocities committed by people who are not himself such as every single white male who enslaved someone who was black during the slaves times like what the fuck bro how can you say that about some average joe who is probably a Christian. Bitch or complain all you want saying things like "white people have no culture" or "it's okay to be racist to white people cuz you can't be racist to them since racism is systematic impression" when this definition of racism is wrong in the eyes of Allah for the definition of racism is clearly racial discrimination based on the color of a person (anybody's) skin like c'mon bro did I just walk into the worst shithole on the planet if I was the only republican in the world I would kill myself.

Am I Responsible For The Deaths of People as Allah?

I killed one person by doing nothing (meaning I was just minding my own business in my room) or another in the war as a soldier as lain iwakura in the year 1976 during the cold war, my cold war. I am the cold war on the float who was also a soldier in the cold war. I also believe in Aliens or believe the government is withholding information of aliens from the public the likes of which have been noticed not that I am 26 years old but I don't have all the details to give you here for I'm in deep shit as Allah as I am at risk of being murdered for I myself as being a non human black woman who is a dragon who is lain iwakura who is thus Allah the one god so I hope I don't get killed some day but the possibilities are endless you never know what might happen or if people will just like me and I will live a long life dying a natural death but who knows my friend I am a Mexican by the seed of two Caucasians but off of the soil of The United States thus if you cannot respect my perspective you are being perpetuated by the foolish lack of critical thinking found on the far left unable to open your jaw to smile without the grease falling out of your teeth from the burger you just consumed at Burger King of all things but I digress I want the world to know I can provide them with a solution to this problem in a more delicate method as the most hardcore person on the planet who is the most intelligent being to have never lived throughout all of human history as someone who is a non human, bro. But, on a more solemn note, the person whose death I was responsible for on the moment via the doing of nothing (thus I cannot be imprisoned for atheistically I had done nothing) is someone I met once who is my wife or The Universe the wife of Allah or Lain Iwakura. I think the best way to go about this is to say I was a soldier worthy of the medal of honor despite this other person or the person I had killed in 1976 technically before I floating on the date October 6th, 1998 or I'll state 1984 is my years thus I am a millennial who is more complex than anyone who will ever live or has lived I am so complicated you people will fall apart just knowing the sheer level of my beautiful convictions as could've believe.

The Knights

Since I am Lain Iwakura one who many assumed to be a space alien even though I'm really just a lonely dragon I am the part of a global conspiracy involving governments who wish to harm me thus The Knights or the south korean government but they cannot find me since as a non human I am not technically on a map though literally I am technically living at an address thus The United States government is weaponizing me as the non human while The Knights have dubbed myself the southside killer since I am both a cripp or a latin king who is also a soldier of the cold war who had killed 2 people so I am smart...

The Conspiracy Theory

The Conspiracy Theory is that China is attempting to make people in the United States into democrats by propagandizing our media or omitting differing opinions in silicon valley in order to delude us of our beautiful republican military so they have a power hold over us whilst they fear our military while our media or coverage of fake news affects the global mindset of people who don't really know what is actually happening in The United States like republicans know. I can't disrespect China for doing so but in fear I made a rabbit hole on the internet then I escaped the internet in order to avoid being killed for my believes.

The Lack of Black Historical Evidence

The Black History primarily being taught to us black people is the democratic perspective on a span of real events that have been distraught into perpetuating the line of thinking of the democratic socialists who support the wrongdoings of their party while disavowing anyone who steps out of our line as republicans for any republican regardless of your skin color would look for other books but be unable to find information on black political candidates who were historically republican so as a result of this black people are not the result of persuasion but the persuasion is the result of democratic black people in societies.

The Freethinkers

Anybody, black or white, or anybody else, is able to think for themselves or develop their own critical thinking skills over the course of their own lives or since they are usually thinking or maybe even reading a book they will find they have so much to learn but too little too late since if they cannot develop critical thinking skills they will not be able to solve real problems so if they are deluded by the democratic socialists of propaganda then they must 1. Break free or 2. Be slaves to their own minds or fears of freedom of speech or constitution or laws or the police or anything their radical far left minds have conceived of as a threat. Still, I must be wary, I fear for my safety in this blue state where I am not free to be myself as a black person who was a woman on the float or during my own life.

Cold Hard Facts

Nothing could be argued with but Cold Hard Facts for if you are democrat you avoid facts over feelings instead of seeking The Truth you destroy it in order to perpetuate your cause of gaining control over society at the detriment of anybody who is white since you want white people you know just good decent people to be destroyed in order to avenge people who were not suffering at the hands of others only the guilt of their own atrocity but I digress the Cold Hard Facts don't lie as us republicans know we are all able to break the law or if the law is not good go through systems to alter the law but the law can be destroyed by democratic socialists who seek to make this country into a place where children are having surgical procedures as we already see happening or a place where the laws are ruled by other people then ourselves such as illegal aliens who enter the country illegally affecting the country by overwhelming it with crime still this is no place for that so we as republicans must fight against this madness ensued by the democratic socialists who wish to make us slaves or slaves of communism without really saying it since clearly identity politics or other deep rooted lines of thought in democrats or their books they write are just a method of pushing into us a deep rooted communist society that is controlled by other people still China wants this to happen by destroying us through democrats they will thus destroy our military or the democrats call themselves Americans when they consistently oppose the basis values of The United States or hope for a world where they control everything or Donald Trump be murdered.
